Such evidence should be in the form of a certificate signed by a responsible officer of the institution. In the case of an institution not situated in the British Isles, the certificate must state that the institution in which the work has been done is authorized to prepare candidates in that subject for a degree.

The candidate will be afforded an opportunity of furnishing the record of his life and education. On the interview and record the Commissioners judge the value of the candidate's personality for each service for which he is entered. 12. Economic History.—Candidates will be expected to have a general acquaintance with the early economic history of England; but special attention will be paid to the economic development of the British Isles and other portions of the Empire during the last two or three centuries, and so much knowledge of European and American conditions will be expected as is necessary for the understanding of British economic history.

13. Public Economics.—The questions will deal with the main forms of State action, central and local, in the economic sphere, together with public finance.

14. Political Theory.—Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of political theory and its history, political theory being understood to mean not only the theory of legislation, but also the general history of the State and its connection with kindred studies such as Ethics, Psychology, Jurisprudence, Public International Law, and Economics. Sub-section (2)—A candidate who is not required by sub-section (1) to offer a vernacular named in column 2 will offer the vernacular named in column 3 against his province if any such vernacular is named, unless he is already familiar with the vernacular there named or with a closely allied one.

Sub-section (3)—A candidate who is not required under the preceding sub-sections to offer a vernacular will offer History instead. A one-year probationer will offer British History; a two-year probationer will offer British History for the Intermediate Examination and European History for the Final Examination.

Any question as to the interpretation and application of this Regulation will be decided by the Civil Service Commissioners.

(8) The ordinary session of the Final Examination for the testing of riding will take place in advance of the rest of the Final Examination, and a special session will, when necessary, be held at a later date for the benefit of any candidate who may have failed at the ordinary session.

Candidates who at the ordinary session satisfy the Commissioners that they are sufficiently at home in the saddle for the efficient performance of all duties required of members of the Indian Civil Service will be awarded marks ranging between 101 and 200 according to the degree of proficiency displayed.

Candidates who at the ordinary session fall short of this adequate proficiency but show such minimum proficiency as is evidence that with a moderate amount of practice they can attain full proficiency, will receive marks ranging between 1 and 100; they will be allowed to proceed to India and will on their arrival there be subjected to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by their Local Government.*

Any candidate who at the ordinary session fails to show a minimum proficiency will be examined again at a special session. If he then attains adequate proficiency he will not be subjected to further tests in India. If he attains minimum proficiency he will be allowed to proceed to India under the same condition as if he had attained minimum proficiency at the ordinary session. No credit in marks will be given for any performance at a special session.

Probationers may also be examined in riding at such time or times as the Commissioners may appoint during the course of the probationary period.

(9) Such deductions as the Civil Service Commissioners may consider necessary will be made from the marks assigned to candidates at the Intermediate and Final Examinations in order to secure that no credit is allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

(10) The Civil Service Commissioners will prepare lists of the candidates in order of merit; the order for the one-year probationers being based on the sum of the marks obtained by the candidates at the Open Competitive and Final Examinations, the order for the two-year probationers being based on the sum of the marks obtained by the candidates at the Intermediate and Final Examinations.

(11) The selected candidates whose performance in the compulsory subjects† of the Final Examination is such as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners, and who have also satisfied the Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, and conduct during the period of probation, shall be certified by the Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Indian Civil Service, provided that they shall comply with the Regulations in force, at the time, for that Service.

(12) If any candidate is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending the Final Examination, the Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or at a special examination. A selected candidate absent for such adequate cause from the Intermediate Examination may, under similar conditions, be allowed to appear at the Intermediate Examination a year later or at a special examination, or may be excused the Intermediate Examination and allowed to appear for the Final Examination in regular course.

Any candidate who at the Intermediate Examination shall appear to have wilfully neglected his studies, or to be physically incapacitated for pursuing the prescribed course of training, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected candidates.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

made by the Civil Service Commissioners with the authority of the Secretary of State for India in Council:—

(i) Selected candidates will be allotted to the various provinces upon a consideration of all the circumstances, including their own wishes; but the requirements of the Public Service will rank before every other consideration.

* Such candidates will receive no increase to their initial pay until they have passed the further tests in question to the satisfaction of their Local Government.

† The compulsory subjects include riding, and a candidate who fails at the end of the period of probation to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that he has reached the minimum standard of proficiency in riding will be liable to have his name removed from the list of selected candidates.

(ii) An allowance of £300 a year, or, in the case of selected candidates possessing an Indian domicile, an allowance of £350 a year, will be given to any candidate who passes his probation at one of the universities or other institutions that have been approved for the purpose by the Secretary of State for India in Council.

In the case of selected candidates on probation for one year the allowance will be payable in four equal instalments on the following dates respectively: December 24th after his selection, March 25th, June 25th and after signature of Covenant on appointment to the Service.

In the case of selected candidates on probation for two years the allowance will be payable in eight equal instalments, the first on the December 24th after selection, the second to the seventh on the six following quarter days, and the eighth after signature of Covenant on appointment to the Service.

The payment of the various instalments of the allowance except the final instalment, and, in the case of the two-year probationers, the instalment payable at the end of the first year of probation, will be conditional on the receipt by the Secretary of State through the Civil Service Commissioners of a certificate that the candidate has fulfilled up to date the requirements of the authorities and shown satisfactory conduct at the approved institution.

If an Indian Government scholar becomes a selected candidate for the Indian Civil Service, his scholarship stipend shall cease to be paid with effect from the 1st October of the year in which he becomes a selected candidate. He may, however, provided he has executed the agreement referred to in (iv) below, be granted on, or at any time after, the 1st October, an advance on account of the instalment of the allowance payable on the 24th December.

The whole probation must ordinarily be passed at the same institution. Migration will not be permitted except for special reasons approved by the Secretary of State.

N.B.—The Secretary of State for India gives notice that the amount of the allowances will be reconsidered in 1928, with a view to a possible reduction with effect from the instalment payable in December, 1928.

4. Models and type-plans of privies approved by the Commissioners in meeting, with estimates of the cost of constructing privies in accordance therewith, shall be kept in the municipal office and shall be open to inspection by any person at all reasonable times without charge, but no person shall be bound to construct any privy in accordance with any such model or type-plan, if the same be constructed in accordance with the other rules on the subject contained in these rules.

- (b) the privy must be so constructed as to afford adequate access to the said space for the purpose of cleansing such space and of placing therein and removing therefrom a proper receptacle for sewage,
- (c) the said receptacle must be water-tight and must be made of metal, well-tarred earthenware or glazed stoneware, and must be of such construction and shape as will admit of its being easily removed and emptied of its contents,

EMIGRATION.

No. 15167 Emi., dated the 17th October 1927.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 163 of the Assam Labour and Emigration Act, 1901 (VI of 1901) and in supersession of all previous rules on the subject the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules for the engagement of emigrants by local agents and garden sardars employed under the Tea Districts Labour Supply Association for whom some of the requirements of Chapter IV of the said Act have been dispensed with or relaxed under Notification No. 11248 Emi., dated the 27th October 1926, issued under section 91 of the said Act.

The rules will take effect from the date of this notification.

F. A. SACHSE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

CHAPTER I.General.

1. In these rules—

(1) “Emigrant” means a person engaged by a certificated garden sardar, for the purpose of emigrating to a labour district and entered in the prescribed register kept up by duly licensed local agent, or a dependant of any such person.

(2) “Intending emigrant” means a person who intends to be engaged by a garden sardar for the purpose of emigrating to a labour district or a dependant of any such person.

2. The schedules and forms attached to these rules are prescribed for the several purposes specified in the heading of each, and shall be taken as a part of the rules.

3. The same provision in every respect shall be made for dependants as for emigrants and intending emigrants themselves, and all rules regulating the treatment and transport of emigrants or intending emigrants, shall be applicable to their dependants also.

CHAPTER IIPowers and duties of officers under the Act.*PART I.—MAGISTRATES.

4. Every Magistrate shall bring to the notice of the Superintendent of Emigration any case of misconduct on the part of any local agent or garden sardar, which may come to his knowledge.

5. When a garden sardar's certificate is cancelled by a District Magistrate under section 63, notice of the fact shall be given to the Assam Labour Board in addition to the employer of the garden sardar and the officers mentioned in sub-section (1) of that section.

6. Before a local agent's license is cancelled by a District Magistrate on general grounds and not on any specific charge of misconduct he shall consult the Assam Labour Board.

7. The District Magistrate shall intimate to the Assam Labour Board any changes made by him in the procedure with regard to emigration.

PART II.—SUPERINTENDENTS OF EMIGRATION.

8. (1) When a garden sardar's license is cancelled by a Superintendent of Emigration the notice of the fact shall be given to the Assam Labour Board in addition to the employer of the garden sardar and the officers mentioned in section 63 (1).

(2) The Superintendent of Emigration, Calcutta, shall inspect and supervise the emigration arrangements at the prescribed halting places and the Port of Embarkation.

9. The Superintendent of Emigration shall not grant a license to any person to be a local agent without a recommendation from the Assam Labour Board. It is the duty of the Superintendent to see that only suitable persons of good character and standing are licensed to be local agents and no license shall be issued merely because nothing is known against the person for whom a local agent's license has been applied for.

10. No person shall be licensed to be a local agent who is reasonably suspected to have any connection with any unlicensed recruiter.

It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to see that emigrants are engaged through genuine garden sardars. He may reject an application for license for a local agent for the reasons stated in this rule and in rule 9 notwithstanding that the Assam Labour Board may have recommended that it be granted.

PART III.—MEDICAL INSPECTORS.

11. Every Medical Inspector, other than the Civil Surgeon of a district, except the Medical Inspectors of Emigrants, Calcutta and Goalundo, shall be subordinate, in all matters connected with his duties as such Inspector, to the Civil Surgeon of the district to which he is appointed.

PART IV.—GOVERNMENT OFFICERS GENERALLY.

12. Every Government officer administering any of the provisions of this Act shall, in the absence of definite orders to the contrary, act under the general instructions of the Superintendent of Emigration appointed for the local area in which such officer is working. All orders of Government will be transmitted through the Superintendent, and all reports and returns shall be made through the Superintendent, who will correspond direct with Government through the Commissioner of the Division.

13. The Medical Inspector of Emigrants and Embarkation Agent, Goalundo, and the Emigration Officers at halting places shall ordinarily act under the general instructions of the Superintendent of Emigration, Calcutta. All orders of Government will be transmitted to them through the Superintendent of Emigration, Calcutta, who will correspond direct with Government.

14. Every officer inspecting place of accommodation shall record the result of his inspection in the Visitors' Book kept for the purpose, and, if he is not himself the Superintendent of Emigration, shall forward a copy of his inspection note to the Superintendent.

CHAPTER III.

Licenses and Fees.

15. The Tea Districts Labour Association desiring to obtain a license under section 64 for any person to be a local agent for the purpose of representing the Association in the recruiting districts and supervising the collection of emigrants by his garden sardars shall apply to the Superintendent of Emigration through the Assam Labour Board.

16. The following procedure is to be followed by associations or firms desiring to be authorised in terms of section 64 (2) of Act VI of 1901 as amended by section 3 (2) of the Assam Labour and Emigration (Amendment) Act 1915 (VIII of 1915) to apply for local agents' licenses:—

The application for authorisation should be forwarded to the Government of India through the local Government or Governments under whose jurisdiction the local agent or agents would work. When an association or firm wishes to obtain an authorisation to apply for local agents' licenses in more than one province, it may, as an alternative to applying separately through each local Government concerned, make a single application through the local Government to which it is best known or within whose jurisdiction its chief place of business is situated, the application specifying the provinces in which it is desired to carry on recruiting operations.

17. Every license to be a local agent shall be in Form No. 1. No person shall act as a local agent unless he holds such a license.

18. The fee payable under section 99 for a license granted under section 98 (Form No. 6) for a vessel to carry passengers for one voyage shall be sixteen rupees: Provided that the fee shall not exceed four annas per head of the total number of passengers which the vessel is capable of carrying. The fee payable for a license (Form No. 7) of a vessel to carry passengers for any term not exceeding one year shall be fifty rupees.

CHAPTER IV.

Places of accommodation provided by local agents.

19. Every local agent shall provide sufficient and proper accommodation in a suitable place for emigrants or intending emigrants and their dependants pending their removal to a labour district and the provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) of section 62 shall apply to such accommodation.

20. Every local agent shall supply to the Magistrate of the district in which they establish a place of accommodation, the following information:—

22. At each place of accommodation there shall be kept a Visitors' Book in which the Magistrate, or the Civil Surgeon, the Medical Inspector or other officer authorised to inspect it, shall enter their orders or remarks and the dates of their visits. 23. It shall be competent for the District Magistrate, by order in writing, to direct a local agent to appoint, for any place of accommodation used by the garden sardars working under him, a proper person to be in charge. Such persons shall constantly reside in the place of accommodation. Should the local agent fail to appoint a person to be in charge or should the person appointed fail to reside on the premises, the local agent shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

24. 26. In each sleeping shed the number of emigrants to be accommodated shall be calculated at the uniform rate of not less than 14 superficial feet of space to each person and shall never exceed that specified in the license (Form No. 2) granted by the District Magistrate, a copy of which shall be posted in a conspicuous place for information of inspecting officers.

The sleeping sheds shall be frequently disinfected and every effort shall be made to keep the place of accommodation free from flies.

34. Unless a sufficient supply of water for drinking and washing purposes is available from a municipal water-supply installation, a good masonry well shall be provided at every place of accommodation, surrounded by a cemented masonry platform so sloped as to convey the waste water away from the well. 36. Clothing, blankets, mats that have been in contact with persons suffering from dangerously communicable disease, such as small-pox or cholera, hospital dressings, foul rags, and all combustible filth shall be regularly and thoroughly burnt in a safe and suitable place. The segregation shed, immediately it ceases to be occupied, shall be carefully cleaned out and disinfected by fumigation or other efficient means.

CHAPTER V.

Repatriation of emigrants.

37. A chalan containing a description of the emigrant and his thumb impression shall be prepared for every emigrant to be repatriated, and sent to the Magistrate of the district to which he is to be despatched.

As soon as he has been so despatched, a telegram shall be sent to the Magistrate of the district in which the station is situated, informing him of the despatch of the emigrant.

39. The District Magistrate on the receipt of such information shall make arrangements to have the emigrant met at the station and produced in his Court. After satisfying himself of the identity of the emigrant he shall sign the chalan and return it to the despatching Magistrate.

40. When the railway station nearest to the native district of the emigrant is not in that district, the Magistrate of the district in which such station is situated, shall forward the emigrant to the Magistrate of his native district, who will follow the procedure laid down in rule 39.

41. All expenditure incurred in the repatriation of emigrants under these rules shall be recovered, subject to the provisions of section 161 of the Act, from the garden sardar or other person in charge of the emigrants or from the employers concerned or their local agents.

42. In the case of emigrants who on their arrival at Goalundo en route to labour districts are found by the Subdivisional Officer at Goalundo to have been wrongfully recruited and who are ordered by him to be repatriated the Embarkation Agent shall arrange for their repatriation, observing, as far as practicable, the same procedure as laid down in clauses (b) to (f) of rule 45 for the repatriation of emigrants returned from the labour districts. 43. Emigrants repatriated from the labour districts or from any place subject to the jurisdiction of the Government of Assam will be returned to their native districts under the orders of that Government.

44. The following rules framed by the Assam Administration shall be observed in sending back such emigrants and their dependants to their native districts:—

(a) The Magistrate or Inspector will provide the emigrants and dependants to be repatriated with railway and steamer tickets to Goalundo or Dhubri, and with diet money at the rate of 4 annas each per diem for the number of days they may be on the journey.

(b) Should there be any emigrants amongst those to be repatriated who are unable to take care of themselves, and have no friends or relatives to look after them, the Magistrate or Inspector shall depute a peon, who should accompany them to Goalundo or Dhubri. On arrival the peon should make over emigrants to the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo or Dhubri, and will then return without delay. The name of the peon forming the escort should be entered in the remarks column of the chalan.

(c) In every case in which an escort is necessary, the Magistrate or Inspector shall provide the peons forming the escort (i) with return railway and steamer tickets and (ii) with diet money for the days during which they may be on the journey till their return, at the rate of four annas each per diem.

(d) Immediately on the despatch of an emigrant or dependant or batch of emigrants or dependants, the Magistrate or Inspector will send to the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo or Dhubri telegraphic advice of the despatch. The advice should state the number of emigrants and dependants sent, the date of despatch and the route by which sent.

(e) On the arrival of the emigrants at Dhubri, the embarkation Agent, after satisfying himself as to the identity of all the emigrants named in the chalan by taking their thumb impressions and comparing the same with those shown on the chalan, shall, after signing the latter, return it to the District Officer from whom it was received, keeping the duplicate copy with himself. He shall accommodate the emigrants in the shed provided for them at Dhubri and shall arrange for their repatriation with all possible despatch.

(g) The Embarkation Agent shall provide each emigrant with a railway ticket to the station nearest to the headquarters of the district in which the emigrant's home is situated, and with diet money for the days during which he may be on the journey, at the rate of four annas per diem, and after seeing that the emigrant has started in the proper train for that station, he shall send a telegram to the Magistrate of the district in which the station is situated, informing him of the despatch of the emigrant, the name of the station at which he will alight from the train, and the hour of his arrival there.

(h) Should there be any emigrants amongst those who have to be repatriated, who are unable to take care of themselves and have no friends or relatives to look after them, the Embarkation Agent shall depute a peon, who should accompany the emigrants to the station nearest to the headquarters of the district in which the emigrants' home is situated. On arrival, the peon should make over the emigrants to the constable or peon waiting to receive them. The peon will then return to Dhubri without delay.

(i) In every case in which an escort is necessary, the Embarkation Agent shall provide the peons forming the escort (i) with railway tickets to the stations to which they are sent, and with the price of tickets for their return journey, and (ii) with diet money for the days during which they may be on the journey till their return to Dhubri, at the rate of four annas each per diem.

(j) On receipt of the chalans from the District Magistrate of the district to which the emigrants have been repatriated, the Embarkation Agent at Dhubri shall inform the Deputy Commissioner of the labour district from which the emigrants were sent to Dhubri of their safe repatriation, and at the same time forward to him a memorandum showing the expenditure incurred by him on that account in order that steps may be taken for the recovery of the amount from the employer or employers concerned.

(k) The amount so claimed shall consist of the railway fare and diet money of the emigrants, cost of telegraphic messages to District Magistrates, and, in the case of emigrants despatched under escort, the railway fare and diet money of the peons as well as their pay at the rate of four annas per diem for the number of days during which they may be absent from headquarters, and of costs duly incurred by District Magistrates in sending emigrants home; it shall also include any other charges which the Embarkation Agent may incur in this connection, such as the cost of the diet of emigrants during their stay at Dhubri. The sum, when recovered, will be deposited in the local treasury by the Embarkation Agent to the credit of the Inland Labour Transport.

(l) In the case of emigrants whether under contract or not, who while en route to the labour districts are found by the Inspector or Magistrate at Dhubri to have been wrongfully recruited, the Embarkation Agent shall arrange for their repatriation observing as far as practicable the same procedure as that laid down in rules (e) to (i) for the repatriation of emigrants returned from the other labour districts of the province.

(m) The cost of repatriation, which may include all or part of the items of expenditure mentioned in the rule (k), shall be recovered in such cases from the garden sardar or other person in charge of the emigrants, or, in default, from the employers.

(n) The charges for the repatriation of emigrants and dependants shall, where they have not been deposited by the employer, be paid by the Magistrate of the district or subdivision from which repatriation takes place, from his contingent advance.

(o) On receipt from the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo or Dhubri of the memorandum showing the expenditure incurred by him on the repatriation of emigrants and dependants from any district in Assam, the Deputy Commissioner shall, in cases where the expenditure is to be recovered from the employer, take steps to recover the amount from him, as well as the expenditure incurred in sending down the emigrants or dependants to Goalundo or Dhubri, as the case may be, which shall include the pay of peons employed as escorts for the number of days for which they may be absent from headquarters. In such case, the amount of the expenditure incurred by the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo or Dhubri shall be credited into the treasury and shown in distinct items in the body of the cash-book. The debits raised on this account between Assam and Bengal, shall be accepted by the Comptroller, Assam; where the expenditure incurred in repatriation is to be charged to the Inland Labour Transport budget, it shall be debited to that head.

The amount of accommodation to be provided and the sanitary and structural arrangements to be made in such rest houses, shall be regulated generally by the provisions of the rules 19 to 36 prescribed for places of accommodation, subject to any modification which the Magistrate may permit.

PART II.—RULES RELATING TO THE TRANSIT BY ROAD AND RAILWAY.

He shall report, for the information of the District Magistrate, any failure on the part of the employer or his agent to attend to the Medical Officer's orders: Water and conservancy arrangements should receive special attention.

57. Properly sheltered deck space shall ordinarily be provided on board steamers or flats, throughout the year at the rate of 12 superficial

In steamers of the daily mail service, besides suitable and available space on the main deck, fore and after cabins also may be measured for the accommodation of emigrants at the rate per emigrant of 12 and 14 superficial feet, respectively.

The Embarkation Agent may, however, at his discretion, permit a provision of 10 superficial feet per emigrant at any time during the cold season, should he consider the amount of space sufficient.

On the express steamers plying between Goalundo and Chandpur, deck space at the rate of 8 superficial feet for day travelling and 10 feet for night travelling shall be allotted for every emigrant.

58. Hospital space shall be provided for one per cent. (with a minimum of 100 square feet) of the total number of emigrants to be carried, but such space shall be allotted at double the rate allowed for healthy adults, making reasonable allowance for space occupied by other requirements.

59. (1) The space intended for hospital purposes shall be provided on the upper deck of the steamer or flat and a canvas screen shall divide it off from the rest of the deck space.

(2) A suitable compartment, approved by the Medical Inspector, shall be set apart for a dispensary.

B.—FITTINGS OF STEAMERS AND FLATS.

60. All fittings shall be provided entirely on board that vessel which is to convey the emigrants to their destination; but, if necessary, and with the Medical Inspector's consent, the hospital may be provided on an upper deck of the adjoining flat or steamer, if it accompany the vessel for the whole journey.

61. Bamboos shall be fastened, fore and aft, along the central stanchions within the emigrants' deck space in order to enable the emigrants to hang up their bundles and blankets for the day.

62. All dangerously exposed places near hatches, ladders, bathing-places, latrines, communication and landing stages shall be securely railed in to guard against accidents.

63. Embarkation, landing and all communicating stages likely to be used by emigrants shall be at least 3 feet wide, well fastened and provided with hand-rails—a requirement that shall be strictly complied with whenever emigrants are to be embarked or landed. In steamers of the daily mail service, the width of the stages shall not be less than 2 feet.

64. One stove and two steam rice boilers shall be provided in a convenient location.

65. Four iron water-tanks, each capable of containing 400 gallons of water, shall be provided on board, and each such tank shall be fitted with at least three moderate sized taps, of simple construction, capable of being secured against use when desirable, and with a padlock iron cover, besides a canvas over-all to exclude dust, etc. A ship's force-pump, with hose complete, shall also be provided for the exclusive purpose of supplying water to the tanks, and shall on no ground whatever, excepting an outbreak of fire on board, be otherwise used. These tanks shall be conveniently placed and filled before the arrival of the steamer at the place of embarkation, with the best water available, for the exclusive use of the emigrants. The water of two of the tanks only shall be in use at the same time, the remaining two tanks being reserved as settling tanks. In steamers of the daily mail service, the tanks may be reduced to two each capable of containing 200 gallons of water, and be placed below with a pump arrangement on deck for the supply of water for drinking and cooking purposes through three moderate sized taps.

66. Every vessel licensed to carry emigrants shall be provided with a covered trough fitted with at least six large and simple taps, placed at such distances apart as to admit of six persons abreast washing their clothes at the same time, and connected with a fixed pump for the constant supply of water therein. Two such troughs shall be provided when the number of emigrants to be carried exceeds three hundred.

67. A sufficiently large and well-protected space for bathing shall be set apart for the use of the emigrants, and shall be fitted with a suitable shower-bath of simple construction, and capable of distributing the shower over a large area, with a movable canvas screen, to be invariably used when women are bathing, and with a suitable pump for supplying water thereto, which may be utilized also for filling the trough.

68. Nothing in these rules shall exempt steamers or flats licensed to carry emigrants from the operation of rules under the Inland Steam Vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917) unless in cases where specific provisions are laid down in these rules.

C—EMBARKATION AGENTS.

69. Emigrants shall be embarked as soon as possible after their arrival.

70. The Embarkation Agent or one of his assistants, the medical officer, and the peon or other persons in charge of the emigrants shall be present at every embarkation. If the number of emigrants to be embarked be small, a competent assistant may be deputed by the Embarkation Agent to supervise the embarkation.

71. If any emigrant is taken ill and is unfit to go he shall be detained and sent to the authorised hospital and such of his relatives and dependants, if any, as desire to remain, or whom it is, for sufficient reason, deemed proper to retain, shall be detained.

D—MASTERS OF VESSELS.

72. The master of any vessel intending to apply for a license to carry more than twenty emigrant passengers shall provide the permanent fittings as prescribed in the rules 60 to 67 and shall thereafter apply in writing to the Embarkation Agent, Goalundo, or other officer duly empowered by the local Government, for an inspection of such fittings, and of the legal capacity of the deck space for the accommodation of such passengers.

73. The Embarkation Agent, Goalundo, or other officer shall thereupon examine the fittings; and, after satisfying himself that the requirements of the rules have been complied with, may grant a certificate of approval, in Form No. 5, specifying the number of emigrant passengers that the vessel may carry.

74. The master of any vessel intending to carry emigrants as passengers under his license shall provide the following:—

- (a) Stores, medicines, medical comforts and cooking utensils in accordance with the requirements of Schedules A, B and C.
- (b) A medical officer licensed by the Embarkation Agent, Goalundo.
- (c) The establishment of attendants as prescribed in schedule D.

Every medical officer licensed under this rule shall be a registered medical practitioner unless the special permission of Government is obtained to the appointment of a qualified compounder. So much of this and other rules framed under the Assam Labour and Emigration Act as relates to the appointment and functions of a medical officer on vessels carrying emigrants shall be inapplicable in the cases of vessels proceeding to the districts of Cachar and Sylhet with less than fifty emigrants on board:

Provided that—

- (i) the Medical Inspector of Emigrants at Goalundo may declare that in any particular case a medical officer of the compounder class shall be carried and for the purposes of this proviso two compounders shall be kept in reserve;
- (ii) where there is no medical officer on board, all intending emigrants shall be carefully examined before embarkation, and
- (iii) the master shall put in at the nearest dispensary in the event of an accident occurring or of disease or illness breaking out, and disembark the emigrants affected for examination and treatment.

75. A special examination shall invariably be made by the Medical Inspector of any vessel in which much sickness has occurred on the voyage immediately preceding; and the license applied for by the master shall not be granted unless the master carries out such measures of cleaning, disinfecting, deck-caulking, etc., as the Medical Inspector may think necessary. If a vessel is found to be recurringly unhealthy for emigrants after material alterations and improvements have been made in her accommodation, a license shall be refused her.

76. After everything has been examined and approved, the master and the medical officer shall sign the prescribed provision and medical store lists and final landing statements (Forms Nos. 8, 9 and 10 respectively), and when the Embarkation Agent is satisfied that all is correct, and that the master of the steamer has a copy of the Act and rules, he may grant a license in Form No. 6 or 7 to the master of the vessel.

77. Persons other than emigrants may be accommodated on board the same vessel with the emigrants and on the same deck provided that the total number under conveyance does not exceed the maximum number specified in the license; but such persons shall on no consideration be permitted to locate themselves within the spaces specially allotted for the use of emigrants proceeding under the Act.

78. Horses, pigs and other animals shall not be allowed on the same deck with the emigrants.

79. The master shall see that the deck space for emigrants is kept clear of cargo, etc., so long as emigrants are under conveyance, and that ladders, stages, etc., are safely secured and railed with a double railing.

80. The master of an emigrant vessel and the medical officer in charge shall conjointly be responsible for the care and good treatment of the emigrants during the passage. The medical officer shall strictly carry out the special instructions contained in Form No. 11 delivered to him by the Embarkation Agent for his guidance.

81. The medical officer shall insist upon the establishment specially entertained for attendance on the emigrants discharging their duties punctually and properly; and the master shall render all the assistance in his power to the medical officer, in order that he may maintain discipline on board and conform strictly with all the requirements of the rules regulating transport.

82. Peons, garden sardars or other persons in charge of emigrants shall obey the instructions of the master and the medical officer, and shall immediately report to them any neglect of duty or occurrence of disease or accidents or disagreements affecting the emigrants. The master and the medical officer shall thoroughly investigate the matter under report as soon as possible thereafter.

83. Peons and sardars shall have their day and night duties fairly divided and clearly defined. When there are sick emigrants in hospital, peons, sardars and topazes shall be deputed to hospital duty so that the sick may constantly be cared for, and the attendants on duty shall be regularly relieved by others in rotation. The careful night nursing of the sick by the attendants shall be strictly insisted on and looked to by the medical officer.

84. As soon after the embarkation as possible, the emigrants shall be comfortably berthed and their bundles searched for any indigestible food, grain or old rags they may have contrived to take with them, all of which shall be thrown overboard or burned either in the engine furnaces or on shore in the presence of the medical officer. This precaution shall receive repeated attention throughout the passage.

85. It shall be the duty of the steamer companies to adopt such measures as may be considered necessary for preventing the sale of unwholesome food to emigrants at the steamer ghats.

86. The decks shall be swept morning and evening and after every meal and shall always be kept clean and dry, but shall be washed only when weather, time and other circumstances permit the emigrants being landed or accommodated on another deck till their deck is thoroughly dry. The emigrants' deck space shall not be encroached upon in any way by either crew or passengers other than emigrants, nor shall they be permitted to interfere with the emigrants.

87. The latrines shall be constantly cleaned and disinfected. Attention shall also be paid to the cleanliness and disinfection of the bed-pans when in use.

88. Whenever the weather permits, the side curtains shall be raised to admit of free perfusion of air, and under all circumstances thorough ventilation shall be promoted by every available means.

89. The emigrants on rising in the morning shall, after well shaking them, fold and sling their blankets out of the way.

90. The emigrants shall be mustered every morning and examined by the medical officer. Those who are well shall, weather permitting, bathe daily, and wash their clothes at least twice a week.

91. Emigrants' clothes, mats and blankets shall be aired and put in the sun as often as possible, especially after damp weather.

92. Rations shall be issued daily by the medical officer according to the scale prescribed in schedule A, and sufficiently early to admit of the food being prepared for distribution punctually at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 4 o'clock in the afternoon; and all such issues, as well as those of medical comforts, shall immediately thereafter be entered by such officer in the prescribed provision and other lists, and certified by him and the master concerned. Boiling rice in bad water shall not be permitted; and when the food is ready, the medical officer shall invariably satisfy himself as to its being properly cooked, and shall see that it is fairly distributed. Stale food shall not be kept by either cooks or emigrants and all utensils shall be cleaned out and shown to the medical officer after each meal. Motherless infants and invalids shall have suitable and freshly prepared food (milk, soup, sago, etc.), ordered for them every three or four hours.

In the case of those emigrants who object to eat the food prepared for them on board, flour, in the prescribed quantity, shall be supplied to them, together with the other articles of uncooked rations (except rice) prescribed in schedule A, and every facility shall be afforded them to cook their own food. Should they, however, prefer it, they may be supplied with chura and gur or suttoo, according to choice.

93. A constant supply of good drinking water shall be kept up in the tanks. These shall be used alternately, the water in each being allowed to settle after the addition of alum in the proportion of 6 grains to the gallon; and pinked with permanganate and every effort shall be made to prevent emigrants from drinking the river-water fresh drawn from the side of the vessel. The water shall be pumped directly into the tanks from the river in midstream and clear from all possible risk of pollution from the latrine, etc.

94. Emigrants on board streamers and flats shall not be allowed to draw water from the river over the sides of the vessels and thereby to incur the risk of accidents.

95. Emigrant passengers, as a rule, shall not be required to labour during the passage, but in exceptional cases of urgent necessity only, such of them as are considered by the medical officer to be well fitted for work may be employed, provided that such work is free from extraordinary risk to life, and that the master supplies those so employed with extra rations at the rate of two-and-a-half chittaks of rice and half a chittak of dal for each man per diem.

96. The master of every licensed vessel on arrival at every port of inspection shall report to the Magistrate or Civil Surgeon the number of passengers and crew on board, the general state of their health and the number of deaths that occurred on the passage; and omission to do so shall entail prosecution or refusal of license to carry emigrants thereafter.

97. The master or the medical officer shall place the way-bill (Form No. 14) of the vessel received from any Embarkation Agent before the inspecting officers at each port of inspection, in order that they may enter their remarks on the several points indicated in such way-bill.

98. The master and the medical officer shall furnish to inspecting officers all necessary information, and shall afford them every facility for the satisfactory discharge of their duties under the provisions of the Act and rules.

99. The master of a licensed vessel at the close of every trip shall prepare in duplicate a mortality return (Form No. 15) in the prescribed form showing the deaths that occurred during the trip among the crew and passengers and shall forward one of these returns to the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo, for information and transmission to the Superintendent of Emigration, Calcutta, and the other to the Director of Public Health, Assam.

100. Every medical officer proceeding in charge of emigrants shall keep a medical diary in the prescribed form (No. 12), as well as a journal of the principal events of the passage, and shall write them up daily and carefully. He shall moreover, on arrival at every inspection station, place the above documents before the inspecting officers for their initials against the latest entry. Every death shall be reported immediately to the master of the steamer, who, if there be no relatives on board entitled thereto, shall take over charge of any property or money left by the deceased, and shall deliver the same to the Magistrate at the next station, or at the last place of debarkation for disposal.

The master of the steamer shall forward the medical diary direct to the Director of Public Health, Assam, and the journal to the Embarkation Agent, Goalundo, at the close of every trip.

101. The medical officer shall also keep a separate cholera register in the prescribed form (Form No. 13) and shall enter in it all necessary particulars regarding each cholera case that occurs. At the close of each trip on which any case of cholera has occurred this register will be sent to the Director of Public Health, Assam, along with the way-bill and the medical diary. A copy of the cholera register should also be sent to the Embarkation Agent at Goalundo.

102. Every medical officer proceeding in charge of emigrants shall, in case of misconduct or neglect of his duties, or of the requirements of the rules regulating transport, be liable to dismissal on the requisition of any Medical Inspector or other officer so empowered.

103. The medical officer shall be responsible for keeping up those parts of Forms Nos. 8 and 9 which relate to the daily issue of provisions and of medical stores and comforts, they shall be filled in regularly every day and submitted for inspection to the inspecting officers when they visit the vessel at the close of the passage.

104. All extra food and any change in diet shall be regulated by the medical officer only, on his own responsibility.

PART IV—PENALTY.

105. Whoever commits a breach of any of the rules contained in this chapter shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

CHAPTER VII.

Procedure to be followed on the occurrence of cholera and other infectious diseases as small-pox, plague, influenza, etc.

106. (1) In the event of cholera, small-pox, plague, enteric, kala-azar, influenza or other epidemic or infectious disease, occurring in any place of accommodation, or in any rest-house on the emigrant route, the person in charge shall take immediate steps to secure the removal of the emigrant attacked to the hospital approved by Government.

(2) All cases and deaths from infectious diseases shall be notified at once to the nearest local authority.

(3) A separate register shall be maintained for cases and deaths of infectious diseases by the Superintendent of Emigration.

(4) Disinfectants, e.g., (i) chlorinated lime, (ii) permanganate of potash, (iii) cyllin, (iv) cyllin soap, (v) towels, basins, etc., shall be stored in a sufficient quantity in all places of accommodation and rest houses.

107. When any emigrant has been removed to hospital the person in charge shall carefully disinfect the clothing and belongings of all others occupying the same shed, whether they belong to the infected batch or not, and shall in the meantime supply to each one fresh clothing and shall remove each such one from such shed to the segregation shed which shall be built apart from the rest house, or place of accommodation, and shall provide sufficient accommodation for at least twenty-five per cent. of the number for which a certificate is granted for the rest house. If the segregation shed is not large enough to hold all, the excess number may be accommodated in some vacant shed within the premises of the rest house, or place of accommodation. It is at the discretion of the Superintendent of Emigration or District Magistrate to exempt such place of accommodation, as he may think fit, from the necessity of having a segregation shed.

108. (1) When any shed in which a case of cholera has occurred has been vacated in pursuance of rule 107, the person in charge shall, under the advice and superintendence of the Medical Inspector or Emigration Officer, as the case may be, (i) have the wood-work, floor and other parts of the shed thoroughly cleaned and disinfected, (ii) freely admit light and air, (iii) have the floor dug up and the earth disinfected and burnt or buried. If the floor is a cemented one, however, it will be sufficient to have it thoroughly washed with disinfectants.

(2) Cholera stools or vomit shall not be thrown into or near any tank or well nor kept exposed to flies but shall be immediately disinfected by covering it with quicklime (chlorinated lime) or pouring on them a disinfectant, e.g., cyllin solution.

(3) Soiled clothes shall not be washed in or near any source of water-supply nor exposed to flies nor buried in the ground. They shall be burnt immediately or thoroughly disinfected by keeping them immersed in a disinfectant such as chlorinated lime or cyllin lotion for at least 15 minutes.

(4) The inmates of the rest house shall be provided with water that has been chlorinated or treated with permanganate of potash. All food should be protected from flies.

(5) Wells or tanks situated in the rest house should be chlorinated or treated with permanganate of potash and protected from pollution.

(6) Every one who attends a patient or touches his or her body or clothing or assists at his or her funeral shall wash his hands with soap and hot water and a disinfectant such as chlorinated lime solution or cyllin lotion.

109. Contacts of small-pox and plague cases shall, if necessary, in the opinion of the medical officer, be vaccinated or inoculated as the case may be.

110. Emigrants who are detained in a segregation shed under observation shall not leave the precincts of such shed until permitted by the Emigration Officer or Medical Inspector, as the case may be, to do so.

111. The period of segregation shall be three days in cholera, 12 days in small-pox, 8 days in plague and influenza and such period shall be calculated from the time of their admission into the segregation shed, provided that no fresh case occurs during the said period, in which case the days shall begin to count from the date of the last case that may occur during their segregation.

112. No fresh batch of emigrants shall be admitted by the person in charge into any shed in a rest house, or place of accommodation in which a case of infectious disease has broken out—

(a) until those attacked are removed to the segregation shed if such be practicable, and all the other emigrants occupying the shed, in which the case occurs, are removed to a segregation shed with the prescribed accommodation required by the rules. The segregation shed to be at such distance from the rest house, or place of accommodation as the Superintendent of Emigration, Emigration Officer or Magistrate thinks necessary;

(b) nor until the shed in which cholera and other infectious diseases have broken out and into which it is desired to again admit the emigrants is thoroughly cleaned and disinfected, in the case of depots or rest houses, to the satisfaction of the Medical Inspector or Emigration Officer concerned, whose permission to receive other emigrants into the rest house will not be given until this is done.

113. When cholera and other infectious diseases broke out in a rest house, the person in charge shall advise the persons in charge of the place of accommodation or other rest house along the route, not to despatch more emigrants, or intending emigrants, until the provisions of rule 112 have been fully complied with and until authorised to do so by the Emigration Officer.

114. To each person detained in a segregation shed, the person in charge of the rest house, or place of accommodation, shall supply two meals of any of the three kinds specified in rule 31 according to the choice of each emigrant, every day during the period of segregation.

115. The daily charge for the treatment of each emigrant in hospital shall be eight annas, and shall be paid by the local agent, or the person in charge of the rest house or place of accommodation, from which the emigrant was taken to hospital.

116. The charge for the removal of each sick emigrant from any railway station or from any rest house, or place of accommodation to the hospital, shall be borne by the local agent or garden sardar or person in charge of the emigrant, or of the rest house, or place of accommodation.

117. The person in charge of the rest house, or place of accommodation shall make all necessary arrangements for the disposal, either by burning or burial, of the bodies of emigrants, or intending emigrants, in his charge who die either in his rest house, or place of accommodation, or in the cholera hospital, and shall defray all expenses connected therewith.

118. Emigrants suffering from slight illness may be attended in their berths; but all serious cases shall be treated in hospital. Patients attacked by cholera or other dangerously communicable disease, with all that belongs to them, shall be instantly and thoroughly isolated from the healthy, and the family or batch in which such disease occurred shall be kept as far apart as possible from the rest of the emigrants without exciting alarm.

The following procedure should be followed when small-pox appears on board a steamer carrying emigrants:—

(a) Emigrants or dependents attacked with small-pox shall be at once segregated and landed at the next landing place at which there is a dépôt hospital.

(b) The medical officer proceeding in charge of emigrants shall at once parade and examine all the emigrants and dependants on board and make out a list of all who have not been already vaccinated or inoculated, or who have not already suffered from small-pox. These emigrants and dependants shall be brought for vaccination before the inspecting medical officer at the next port of inspection reached by the steamer. The number of emigrants and dependants to be vaccinated should be entered in the steamer way-bill.

The medical officer shall, on the appearance of a case of small-pox among the emigrants or dependants, at once vaccinate all of them.

119. Places originally occupied by emigrants removed on account of communicable disease shall be instantly cleaned, and the deck shall be thoroughly scraped and scrubbed with hot sand and disinfecting fluid, and if circumstances admit, fumigation with burning sulphur shall also be carried out.

120. Besides immediate isolation and treatment of the first case of dangerously communicable disease, every precaution shall be taken to prevent an epidemic, strict attention being paid to premonitory symptoms, general and personal cleanliness, careful disinfection and disposal of excreta, disinfection and destruction of infected articles, free ventilation, and care of the healthy.

121. All clothes, blankets, mats, and other things that have been in any way in contact with those suffering from serious communicable disease, or have been soiled or are suspected of infection or impurity, shall be placed in disinfecting fluid and disposed of by burial or burning. They may be burnt in the ship's furnace or on shore according as the medical officer may direct.

122. When cholera or any other disease in an epidemic form breaks out, a special report should be prepared showing, if possible, the probable cause of such an occurrence. The register of cholera cases (Form No. 13) should be carefully filled in, and the medical diary should show the details of treatment of each case from day to day. Every precaution should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and its occurrence should be reported to the Magistrate of the first station arrived at thereafter. The Civil Surgeon of the district shall without delay pass on the information to the Civil Surgeon of the next district concerned.

123. (a) On the death of an emigrant in a place of accommodation or in a hospital, the local agent or the medical officer in charge of the hospital, as the case may be, shall hand over the property of the deceased emigrant to his or her relatives who may be present. In the absence of any relative or when there is dispute among several relatives, the local agent or the medical officer shall make a list of the property and forward such property with the list to the nearest district or subdivisional Magistrate, who shall, after making enquiry as to the heirs, dispose of the property.

(b) When, however, the emigrant dies in a rest house, or during journey by road or rail, the forwarding agents concerned shall make a list of the property as early as may be practicable, and forward such property, together with the list, to the Manager of the garden to which the emigrant was proceeding, for delivery to any relative who may be present, but when there is no relative or there is a dispute among several relatives, the garden Manager shall send the property and the list to the District Magistrate or Subdivisional Magistrate within whose jurisdiction deceased's home is situated for disposal.

124. Whoever commits a breach of any of the rules in this Chapter shall be punishable with fine, which may extend to five hundred rupees.

The memorandum on the reverse should be accurately filled in for the information of the Emigration Department.

2. All the noteworthy events, occurrences and incidents of the voyage should be duly reported to the officers who may visit the vessel for the purposes of inspection.

3. A journal recording accurately and briefly the daily occurrences of the voyage should be daily written up, and the initials of the Master obtained at the close of each day, and those of the inspecting officers on the dates of their inspections. Such journal, together with the special cholera report, if any, a complete way-bill of the shipments and any other papers relating to the passage, should be posted under cover of a forwarding letter to the Embarkation Agent concerned in the embarkation of the emigrants under conveyance, for endorsement of any remarks he may desire to offer, and for transmission to the Superintendent of Emigration at Calcutta.

4. The emigrants during the winter months should be made to wear their warm clothing, whenever the conditions of the weather render such a precaution necessary.

5. The effects of the emigrants under conveyance to the labour districts should be searchingly examined under personal supervision after embarkation and at intervals during the voyage, and all improper articles of food and dirty rags found amongst them should be at once removed and destroyed.

6. Every care should be taken to secure the serving out of properly cooked food to the emigrants, and special and continuous attention should be paid to the regular and proper feeding of infants and children and the sick with milk and other suitable and nourishing diet. Strict attention should also be paid to the maintaining of a constant supply of good drinking-water, as well as to the carrying out of the arrangements for the supply of water for bathing and washing purposes.

8. On the landing of emigrants at their destinations, the Medical Officer should see that disembarkations are not effected at any but authorized landing places, and should also carefully fill in health certificates.

9. When cholera or any other disease in an epidemic form breaks out, a special report should be prepared showing, if possible, the probable cause of such an occurrence. The prescribed register of cholera cases (Form No. 13) should be carefully filled in, and the medical diary (Form No. 12) should show the details of treatment of each case from day to day. Every precaution should be taken to prevent the spread of the disease, and its occurrence should be reported to the Magistrate of the first station arrived at thereafter.

The following books are recommended for the use of teachers :—

Frew ... A Regional Geography of the Indian Empire (Blackie and Son).

Wallis ... The Teaching of Geography (Cambridge University Press).

O'Malley ... Bengal, Behar and Orissa, Sikkim (Macmillan and Co.).

The following book is recommended for the use of teachers in connection with the teaching of " Sand Modelling " in the lower class of schools :—

A. F. Frye ... The Child and Nature.

[N. B.—Every school that intends to undertake instruction in Geography for the Matriculation Examination is required to possess the apparatus mentioned in the following list :—

I. (The total cost need not exceed Rs. 65.)

- (1) A measuring tape and metre scale and foot-ruler.
- (2) A magnetic compass.
- (3) Squared paper and tracing paper.
- (4) Clay, dry sand, paper pulp for modelling.
- (5) A globe not less than 14 inches in diameter, with writing surface, and with line of latitude and longitude and outlines only of the land masses marked upon it.
- (6) A map of the school locality on a scale of 4" or 6" = 1 mile.
- (7) A map of the district in which the school is situated 1" = 1 mile.
- (8) A coloured map of the province.
- (9) A coloured political map of India.
- (10) A physical map of India.
- (11) A relief map of India.
- (12) A map of the world on Mollweild's equal area projection and a map of Asia.

It is essential that the students should be provided with atlases, or with the necessary hand map, and with a drawing instrument box. Maps for school work should not contain too much detail or be crowded with names.

II. The following additional equipment is recommended when it can be provided but the lack of it is not to be considered as a bar to the recognition of the school in Geography :—

- (1) A thermometer.
- (2) A mercury barometer.
- (3) A rain-gauge.
- (4) A small collection of typical rocks, in particular, those of the province and India.
- (5) A small museum of typical products.
- (6) A good standard atlas.
- (7) Geographical pictures.
- (8) Magic lantern and slides.

(1) The attention of teachers is invited to the raised maps of Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam made of paper pulp, prepared by Babu Kailaschandra Dutt, Head Pandit, Habiganj Government Girls' School, Sylhet, and sold for Rs 7 and Rs. 5, respectively.

(2) Globes of all kinds are made by George Phillip and Son, London, W. and A. K. Johnston, London, and Messrs. Ruddiman, London. Small hand globes of German make can be obtained through the Indian School Supply Depot for about a rupee each.

(3) The " Comparative " series of large wall maps of the continents published by George Phillip and Son is good and up to date ; so also are the Geographical wall maps published by Edward Stanford. Messrs. Ruddiman Johnston publish a series of smaller wall maps which include maps of India illustrating various distributions.

Messrs. Nelson's wall atlases are good. Mr. S. B. Chatterjee publishes District Maps; also ordinary and relief maps of the province.

Babu L. M. Basu, the Drawing Master of the Dacca Collegiate School, has published good relief maps of Eastern Bengal and Assam and of India.

The Vidal-Lablaache French wall maps on strong card-board, named on one side, and the same map without names on the reverse, published by Armond Collin, Paris, are good and cheap. They measure 46 inches by 39 inches and can be delivered in Calcutta for Rs. 4-14 each.

(4) The hand-maps, coloured to indicate relief, published by the Diagram Company, West Barnes Lane, New Malden, Surrey, at one penny each, are the best of their kind.

The uncoloured half-penny maps showing river systems and a few towns, published by the same Company, are excellent for class use.

The autograph hand-maps, with hill shading in brown, published by Messrs. Edward Stanford, London, at one penny each, are very good, and are larger than the Diagram Company's hand maps. The 15 inches map of the world on Mollweild's equal area projection is especially to be commended.

(5) Wall pictures of considerable artistic merit are published by Messrs. Edward Arnold of Leeds, Horns Hachette of Paris, Messrs. Holzcl of Vienna, and Messrs. Longmans Green and Company. They cost, delivered in India, from two or three rupees each.

Map lantern slides and view slides specially prepared for Geography teaching are sold by the Diagram Company for two or three shillings each. Mr. Burlington Smith of Darjeeling also sells good picture slides of the Himalayas at Rs. 15 per dozen.]

NOTE.—The above list is not exhaustive, and much of it might be replaced by similar forms that could probably be made far more cheaply by any clever mistry under proper supervision. In most cases, however, it will probably be found advantageous to buy such a set as indicated in the list, specially for demonstration purposes, and subsequently to develop simplified duplicates illustrating the same principles, which the boys should be given opportunity actually to experiment with on their own individual account or working in pairs.

PART VI.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly, and Bills published under Rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 19th September, 1927 :—

L. A. BILL NO. 44 OF 1927.

A Bill further to amend the Inland Bonded Warehouses Act, 1896, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Inland Bonded Warehouses Act, 1896, for the purposes hereinafter appearing ; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Inland Bonded Warehouses (Amendment) Act, 1927.

Amendment of section 4, Act VIII of 1896.

2. (1) In sub-section (1) of section 4 of the Inland Bonded Warehouses Act, 1896 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(a) the words “with the previous sanction of the Local Government” shall be omitted ; and

(b) the following proviso shall be added, namely :—

“Provided that, where a warehouse is to be wholly or partly in the charge of officers serving under a Local Government, it shall not be appointed or licensed as an inland bonded warehouse until the Local Government has signified its assent to such appointment or license.”

(2) In sub-section (2) of the same section, the following words shall be added at the end, namely :—

“and, if the owner so desires, as if goods, in respect of which the procedure laid down in sections 90, 91 and 92 of the said Act has been complied with, were goods already warehoused at a warehousing port within the meaning of section 105 of the said Act.”

Amendment of sections 5 and 7,
Act VIII of 1896.

3. In sections 5 and 7 of the said Act, for the words “Local Government” the words “Chief Customs-authority” shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is the practice to allow goods intended for warehousing at an inland bonded warehouse to be removed there from the wharf or ship's side direct. It has been pointed out that under the law as it stands, strictly interpreted, no goods ought to be removed to an inland bonded warehouse unless they had previously been deposited in a warehouse at a customs-port; to enforce this would be a useless and expensive formality. It is, therefore, proposed that the existing practice should be regularised.

2. Some inland bonded warehouses are managed by officers of the Local Governments, others by officers directly subordinate to the Central Board of Revenue. With respect to the latter class, it is proposed, in pursuance of the principle of the Central Board of Revenue Act, 1924, that the Local Governments should be divested of authority, their authority in other cases being maintained by the provision that the Chief Customs-authority (i.e., the Central Board of Revenue) must obtain the assent of the Local Government before appointing or licensing any inland bonded warehouse.

New Delhi, the 8th November, 1927.

No. F.-8-VI-27-A.—Whereas the validity of the election of Mr. Yacoob Cassim Ariff by the Calcutta and Suburbs (Muhammadan Urban) constituency as a Member of the Legislative Assembly has been brought in question by an election petition duly presented by Mr. Muhammad Rafique under the provisions of Part VII of the Legislative Assembly Electoral Rules;

CALCUTTA AND SUBURBS MAHOMEDAN CONSTITUENCY.

(INDIAN LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.)

Muhammad Rafique ... Petitioner, versus

Yacoob Cassim Ariff ... Respondent.

Calcutta, 20th October 1927.

This is an Election Petition under Part VII of the Legislative Assembly Electoral Rules to have the election of the Respondent declared void, and to have himself declared the duly elected candidate, mainly on the ground that the result of the election has been materially affected by the improper reception of votes, and by corrupt practices under Part II, Schedule V, of the Electoral Rules alleged in the petition of which particulars have been furnished.

Respondent denies the allegations made in the petition, and submits that his election is perfectly valid, and adds that petitioner was less than 25 years of age on the date of his nomination, and that therefore the petition is not maintainable, and petitioner cannot claim to be declared duly elected.

Upon the several allegations in the petition, and denials in the written statement the following issues have been framed:—

Issues.

1. Was the petitioner a duly nominated candidate and is he entitled to maintain the petition?
2. Is the petitioner's claim to be returned as the duly elected candidate maintainable?
3. Did the persons mentioned in list A vote in the disputed election? If so, were their votes void?
4. Are the persons mentioned in list B Non-Muhammadan and disqualified to vote?
5. Did the persons mentioned in list C vote more than once in the constituency?
6. Where the persons mentioned in list D (A) dead and the persons mentioned in D (B) absent and were persons named in list D (C) personated by other persons?
7. Was the person named in Appendix F unable to vote, some one else having voted for him?
8. Are the tendered votes, votes of real voters and ought they to be included in the poll?
9. Were the ballot papers named in Appendix G wrongly rejected by the returning officer?
10. Has the security been furnished by the petitioner as required by law? If not, is he entitled to succeed? Is the Tribunal competent to decide this point?
11. Has the result of the election been materially affected on the grounds involved in the above issues?
12. Is the election of the respondent liable to be set aside and is the petitioner entitled to be declared duly elected in his place?
13. Is the petitioner entitled to the costs of this petition?

Decisions.

Issue (1).—This issue is framed upon the defence contention that the petitioner being under 25 years of age was not a duly nominated candidate, and was therefore not competent to present the petition. The petition is presented under Rule 32 of the Electoral Rules, which lays down that an election petition may be presented by any candidate or elector. Rule 30 defines candidate as a person who has been nominated as a candidate, etc. Upon paragraph (1) of the written statement it is an admitted fact that the petitioner was nominated. So far as the maintainability of the petition is concerned, no question of due nomination or of the age of the candidate presenting the petition can arise. Where Rules require due nomination they clearly so lay down (see Rules 12 and 13). The fact that the word nomination in Rule 32 is not qualified shows that mere nomination is sufficient. The English Law on the subject is:—"A person disqualified for nomination, who has in fact been nominated, is a candidate and may petition." (Rogers on Elections, page 250.) This is consistent with the wide definition of candidate in Rule 30, and with the wording of Rule 32. We do not therefore consider it necessary to decide whether the petitioner was duly nominated, and find that the petitioner is entitled to maintain the petition.

Issue (2).—This issue is based upon the contention of the defence that the petitioner being under 25 years of age, and therefore not eligible to be a candidate, his claim to be returned as duly elected candidate is not maintainable. Such a question can only be raised on recrimination under Rule 42. It is not shown that respondent gave notice of his intention to recriminate within 14 days from the date of publication of the election petition under clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of Rule 36 and made the deposit and procured the execution of the bond referred to in Rules 35 and 36 respectively. In these circumstances under the proviso to Rule 42 respondent is precluded from giving evidence that petitioner was under age, and the evidence that has been taken on the point is not legal evidence. It is said for respondent that under Order VIII, Rule 2 of the Civil Procedure Code, apart from recrimination, respondent may raise the question that petitioner's claim to the seat is not maintainable he being under 25 years. Under Rule 37 of the Electoral Rules, every election petition shall be enquired into by the Commissioners as nearly as may be in accordance with the procedure applicable under the Code of Civil Procedure (1908) to the trial of suits, subject to the provisions of the Electoral Rules. As rule 42 lays down special procedure to be followed to enable the respondent to give evidence to prove that the election of the petitioner would have been void if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented complaining of his election, in a case where the petitioner claims the seat for himself, as in this case, it follows that respondent cannot raise the question under Order VIII, Rule 2.

It is further said for respondent that under Rule 45 the Commissioners are to report if the returned candidate or any other party to the petition who has claimed the seat has been duly elected, and in so reporting shall have regard to the provisions of Rule 44; consequently under Rule 44 in this case the Commissioners will have to see if the result of the election has been materially affected by the improper reception of the nomination of petitioner. We hold however that Rule 44 is to be read subject to Rule 42, which precludes the respondent from adducing evidence of petitioner's age, and that it cannot be contended that petitioner's claim to be returned as a duly elected candidate is not maintainable.

Issue (3).—The seven persons in Appendix A have no asterisk against their names in the electoral roll, so they are not voters for the Legislative Assembly. Six of them voted in this election, five for respondent and one for petitioner. The remaining one, Nasiruddin, does not appear to have voted. Votes of persons who are not on the Register will be struck off on a scrutiny (Rogers on Elections, Vol. II, page 239). Five votes for respondent and one for petitioner must therefore be struck off.

Issue (4).—The persons named in Appendix B (witnesses 13—15) say they are Hindus. There is no evidence in rebuttal and no reason to disbelieve them. Under proviso (2) of Rule 5 (f) of Schedule II, they are not qualified to vote in a Mohammadan constituency. The Electoral Roll shows that ballot papers were issued to them, though they had no right to vote. Two of them say they did not vote, and the third is silent about voting. It has not been possible to trace their votes as the counterfoils concerned show only the serial number of the voter in the Ward Roll, without any Ward number. This is a serious irregularity, as it renders it impossible to check those votes, but in view of our finding on the petition it is not necessary to discuss the effect of it.

As it is impossible to tell for which candidate these persons voted, if either, no action can be taken on our finding on this issue.

Issue (5).—Appendix C gives the names of persons who are said to have voted twice. Petitioner has examined five of them (P. Wa. 4, 7, 17, 21 and 25). One of them (P. W. 17) admitted voting twice but only one of his ballot papers could be traced. The rest say that they voted once. On examination of the counterfoils it appears that Soleman Ariff Bham voted twice. His ballot papers show that both votes were given to respondent. One of these votes is invalid, and must be struck off. We have not been able to trace any other invalid vote under this issue.

Issue (6).—Appendix D (a) gives the names of electors who are said to be dead, P. W. 5 proves the death of voter Ahmad Khan, P. W. 8 of voter Marai, P. W. 26 of voter Jaker Khan and P. W. 23 of his father-in-law Uzir, supported by respondent's witness No. I. There is no sufficient evidence in rebuttal. The ballot papers and counterfoil show that votes were recorded for these dead persons, in favour of the respondent. These votes must be struck off. The death of Abdul Hakim, Mithu, Gulmir, and Haji Sukur Gani has also been proved, but it has not been possible to trace whether any votes were recorded in their names, the same difficulty being encountered as under Issue (4).

Appendix D (b) gives the names of persons who are said to have been absent at the time of the Election, and not to have voted. Hafiz Golam Sarwar (P. W. 16) and Abdul Hosain (P. W. 30) say they were away in Ajmere at the time of the election and did not vote. P. W. 22 proves the account books of Hafiz Golam Sarwar showing an entry of Rs. 121 and odd annas spent on Railway tickets on 6th January 1927. This witness also says that Hafiz Golam Sarwar was absent at the time of the election. We find no reason to disbelieve those witnesses. Ballot papers show that votes were recorded in their name for respondent. This must have been done by some other persons, and these two votes must be struck off.

Appendix D (c) gives the names of electors who are said to have been personated at the election. We found the same difficulty in tracing the votes of those persons as we refer to under Issue (4). It is therefore useless to discuss the evidence regarding each. No action is possible.

Issue (7) was not pressed at the trials.

Issue (8).—This issue deals with tendered votes. Jahoor (P. W. 18), Makbul (P. W. 1), and Hamid Mistri (P. W. 11) (Nos. 1, 3 and 2 respectively of the Tendered Voted List) each says that he tendered his vote on being told that a vote had been recorded in his name. P. W. 13 says he identified Jahoor at the voting. P. W. 33, Polling Agent, says that he identified Mangru and that the latter tendered his vote. Ashraf Ali (P. W. 2) says he went to vote and was given a paper to sign which he signed and then was asked to leave. He says he did not vote. His tendered ballot paper shows a vote recorded for petitioner. We consider the most probable explanation to be that not being allowed to vote in the ordinary way he thought his vote was not accepted, though the ballot paper shows that he did vote. It is proved that Jahur came to the polling station and repudiated the vote given in his name and that he tendered a vote for petitioner.

We do not think there is any sufficient reason to disbelieve these witnesses. The tendered ballot papers of Makbul, Mangru, Ashraf, Jahur and Hamid Mistri show that they tendered votes for the petitioner. These five votes must be added to the petitioner's total. Ordinary ballot papers show that votes were recorded in the names of Jahur, Mangru, Ashraf and Hamid for the respondent. These must be bad votes, and should be struck off from respondent's total.

Issue (9).—The ballot papers in Appendix G do not appear to have been wrongly rejected.

Issue (10).—This issue was not pressed.

Issues (11) and (12).—For reasons given in the decision of the several issues considered above, the votes of six persons named in Appendix A are void. Five are for respondent and one for petitioner: they must be struck off. One vote under Appendix C for respondent is to be struck off. Votes of four persons in Appendix D (a) are void being votes in the names of dead persons. They are for respondent and must be struck off. Two votes were recorded for absentees named in Appendix D (b) on behalf of respondent and must be struck off. Ordinary votes given in the names of four persons named in the tendered votes list are for respondent and must be struck off. Thus in all sixteen votes for respondent and one for petitioner must be struck off. Five persons in the tendered votes list voted for petitioner, and those votes must be added to his total. Respondent polled 1,421 votes. This will be reduced to 1,405. Petitioner had 1,402 votes, which after one vote is deducted and five added, will be raised to 1,406, thus giving the petitioner a majority of one.

As a result of this finding we recommend that the election of the respondent be set aside, and that the petitioner be declared duly elected to the seat.

Issue (13).—The petitioner in giving particulars of persons whose votes should be struck off was not as careful as he should have been. This has put respondent to unnecessary expenses but respondent has put himself to further unnecessary expense by examining a number of unnecessary witnesses, instead of restricting himself to the case petitioner had attempted to make out. Petitioner on the other hand when adducing evidence showed greater care and restraint. Taking these circumstances and the number of sittings into consideration, we assess the costs at Rs. 750 (seven hundred and fifty) to be paid by respondent to petitioner.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

Minister-in-charge: The Hon'ble Sir P. C. Mitter, Kt., C.I.E.

No. 2559 P.H.—The 19th November 1927.—In pursuance of section 37F of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), it is hereby notified for general information that the Bhatpara improvement scheme submitted by the Commissioners of the Bhatpara Municipality, in the district of the 24-Parganas, has been approved by the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) and that the particulars of the said scheme are as follows:—

(a) The scheme may be described under three heads—

- (i) sewerage and sewage disposal,
- (ii) water-supply,
- (iii) incidental town planning.

(i) The sewerage scheme provides for sewers in all the important roads of the town, these being laid in such a manner that they can be extended further when required. Sewage will be flushed into the sewers at special depôts, and the discharge from public latrines, septic tanks, and surface drains will be taken into the sewers. The sewage will gravitate to a central pumping station, from which it will be pumped to an outfall works on the east of the railway line. Here the sewage will be dealt with in detritus tanks and sedimentation tanks, and the effluent from the latter will be used to irrigate about 67 acres of land. The present system of sewage disposal by nightsoil cart and trenching ground will be done away with when this new water carriage system comes into operation.

(ii) Water-supply scheme provides for extension of water mains to most of the town area. Water will be supplied by the mills at ten gallons per head of population. The distribution system will be divided into zones, each zone being supplied by the mill within it.

(iii) As a subsidiary part of the scheme certain new roads will be made in order to open up undeveloped areas of the town. Most of these roads will be provided with water mains and sewers.

(b) The estimated cost of the scheme is as follows:—

					Rs.
Sewerage	13,10,000
Water-supply	3,92,500
Land	4,07,865
				Total	21,10,365

(c) The estimated cost of maintenance is as follows:—

					Rs.
Sewerage	18,000
Water-supply	2,500
				Total	20,500

(d) The capital cost of the combined scheme will be met as follows :—

	Rs.
Government contribution	7,00,000
Contribution from the mills	11,50,000
Amount already paid for the preparation of the scheme	30,954
Balance in hand in the bank and treasury	1,54,105
Loan to be taken by the Municipality	75,306
Total	21,10,365

(e) The Municipality proposes to take a loan of Rs. 75,306 when required.

(f) The recurring charges will be met as follows :—

(i) Sewerage—

	Rs.
Savings out of the conservancy fund on account of the introduction of sewerage scheme ...	11,000
Extra on account of increase of latrine rate from 6 to 6½ per cent.	3,000
Present annual surplus of latrine fund ...	2,500
General fund	1,500
Total	18,000

(ii) Water-supply—

	Rs.
Water rate at 2 per cent. on holdings excluding mills and railway buildings	8,800

(g) The incidence of water rate per head of population will be about 2·14 annas.
